

Sixth Form Bulletin 15/05/17

Queen Elizabeth High School, Hexham

Careers/Apprenticeships

YEAR 13 'The Job Show' North East is being held at the Stadium of Light in Sunderland on Thursday 18 May 2017 (10.30am – 3pm). Designed for any student looking for employment or an apprenticeship, the event includes representatives from employers such as Barclays, Go North East, WorldPay, Tesco Bank, Northern Gas and Power, and many more. There will also be careers advisors and apprenticeship information available from the National Careers Service, Newcastle College, Sunderland College, and the Prince's Trust. For more information see <http://www.thejobshow.com/job-show-event/north-east-sunderland-18th-may-2017/>

YEAR 13 Ernst and Young (EY) still has vacancies available on their EY Business Apprenticeship scheme for September 2017 entry. The scheme allows school leavers to go straight into a full-time job with a starting salary of up to £21,500. For more information on the scheme, see <https://ukcareers.ey.com/schools/our-programmes/programmes-for-school-leavers/the-ey-business-apprenticeship/>

BOTH YEARS The Ladders Creative Careers Conference is being held at Newcastle City Library on Tuesday 23 May 2017. The conference is designed for students to get an insight into careers in areas such as music, film and TV, animation, and software development. The event features speakers from some of the region's industry and educational experts, discussing how to get a step on the creative careers ladder. Topics covered during the day include business in the music industry, the digital sector in the North East, further education, turning your passion into your career, blogging, creative development agencies, the visual media industry, and careers in software development. For more information and to book, see <https://www.thisiscreativeenterprise.com/ladders-careers-conference-23rd-may-2017/>

Enrichment

BOTH YEARS Hexham Abbey are holding a 'living history' day on Saturday 27 May 2017 to celebrate Northumberland Day and are looking for Sixth Form volunteers for the event. Volunteers would welcome visitors and help people find their way around the site and engage in the hands-on activities on offer, with the day featuring characters and skills from the past brought to life by local historians and heritage interpreters. This opportunity would be ideal for students interested in history, heritage, and tourism, or those interested in a local volunteering opportunity. For more information, contact Jane Abrams on 01434 611906 or halo@hexhamabbey.org.uk

YEAR 12 Kielder Art and Architecture and Newcastle University's School of Architecture invite Sixth Form students who are considering studying architecture at university to an 'Introduction to Architecture' workshop. The programme consists of three one-day workshops at Kielder Water and Forest Park on 27, 28 and 29 June 2017. During the three days, students will explore Kielder's landscape and the art and architectural works installed there; work with the university team to develop concept proposals and refine ideas; develop and document their work; and create an architectural installation at a site within Kielder Forest. To apply for a place, contact Peter Sharpe on info@kielderartandarchitecture.com with your name, age, school, and why you would like to be considered (short text of no more than 100 words) by Friday 19 May 2017.

