Materials to support your revision

Link to Online Resources:	Students have been provided with a comprehensive list in their revision task booklets. However, the BBC Bitesize website has a number of good resources. Students should use the search box at the top to search for key events we have studied e.g. Peasants Revolt https://www.bbc.com/education
Link to exemplar questions or past papers to use:	https://my.dynamic-learning.co.uk/Default.aspx?ReturnUrl=%2f – the exam practice section. Students can also access the textbooks through this website which have practice questions in them. http://www.aqa.org.uk/subjects/history/gcse/history-8145/assessment-resources - AQA have recently released further examples of exam questions with student responses and examiner comments.
Link to model answers or mark schemes:	https://my.dynamic-learning.co.uk/Default.aspx?ReturnUrl=%2f – the exam practice section. http://www.aqa.org.uk/subjects/history/gcse/history-8145/assessment-resources - AQA have recently released further examples of exam questions with student responses and examiner comments. Students will also be provided with sample questions, mark schemes and response by their class teacher which will form part of our department revision programme.
Recommended revision guides:	A revision guide from AQA is available but only covers one of the topics. Copies of the textbook we have been using within class are available to purchase – please see Dynamic Learning for details of the textbooks.

In house booklets:	Students should use their classwork as well as their revision task booklet to revise. The revision task booklet includes a comprehensive list of website and revision podcasts as well as a number of revision tasks to complete. Students can also access the textbooks on Dynamic Learning and have been shown ow to do this in class by their teacher.
