We ask students and their parents to research fully any opportunities advertised in the bulletin to ensure they are happy with the organisation they are linking with and its value for money if there is a cost.

Notices

Year 13 Are you uncertain about one of your subjects?

Even if you achieved a D in your April exam or resit, we know a small number of students might be wondering if they are doing the right thing in continuing that subject into Year 13. If this is the case for you, please contact Joanne in the Curriculum Office either in person by visiting the bungalow or by emailing curriculum@qehs.net to request an appointment to discuss what options may be open to you in September.

Young People's Future Health Inquiry: Are you interested in being part of a research project looking at:

- What good work means to you
- Your views on enablers and challenges to accessing to good work
- Your experience of being supported into work
- Your views of the effects of work on your health
- What you would like to see more of, or done differently, to get into good work
- What you would like to see from the government, education, employers and support services

So far, the research has launched a survey that you may wish to take part in.

If you are interested in being part of the next stage of the research, the Institute for Employment Studies, together with Working Options, are offering gift vouchers of £20 for interviews and £30 for focus groups.

Please contact this address if you are interested.
