

Hadrian Learning Trust – Our Code of Conduct

Within Hadrian Learning Trust we have three core values which shape our ethos:

Respect, Engage, Aspire.

Respect

- Respect yourself by dressing smartly in full school uniform
- Respect yourself by behaving in an orderly and pleasant manner
 - Respect your peers by being kind
- Respect your teachers and support staff by following instructions
 - Respect our school by maintaining a calm environment
 - Respect our school by keeping it clean and tidy
 - Respect our school by taking care of school equipment
 - Respect our school by not chewing gum
 - Respect our school by only eating in designated areas
 - Respect our school by observing our online safety policy

Engage

- Engage with your learning by being prepared and equipped for all lessons
 - Engage with your lessons by being on time
- Engage with your learning by listening attentively and asking questions
- Engage with your learning by doing your homework to the best of your ability
 - Engage with school by maintaining excellent attendance
 - Engage with your peers by working collaboratively
 - Engage with a range of activities and clubs
 - Engage with your peers by keeping your phone switched off all day

Aspire

- Aspire to succeed by trying your best in all subjects
- Aspire to be your best by having high expectations
- Aspire to expand your horizons by taking on challenges
- Aspire to succeed by gaining as many P-points as you can
- Aspire to broaden your understanding by reading widely
- Aspire to improve by responding to teacher feedback