

The Telegraph Media Literacy Programme supported by the Careers Office

Purpose :

This exciting programme will help you find out more about what it is like to be a journalist, the industry, and how we get our news. This programme will also help you get more information on how to get into journalism and other Media roles.

You will learn about the importance and value of trusted responsible news.

Content :

Lots of talks, presentations and activities involving editors from the worlds of sport, fashion, travel, politics, pictures, music, video, Snapchat etc...

When:

There will be 4 online sessions starting 1st March 2022. These will be online. Sessions start at 4pm - 5pm every Tuesday.

Programme Ends:

Taking part in all 4 sessions means you receive a Telegraph School Journalism Certificate. This will help with your CV and career planning.

For the student who shows the most commitment there is an opportunity to win a £100 Amazon or Asos voucher.

HOW to APPLY

As a cover letter for your application we would like you to write 100 words on why you would like to take part.

You will need to submit your application to us via our careers site, linked here. Please ensure to use your school email address, and to state the name and location of your school.

We're open for applications until 5 pm on Friday 12th November 2021.

Your school and yourself will be notified of next steps.
