

Fine Art - Key Stage 5(12)
Course title: A-Level Fine Art
Exam board: AQA
Specification code: 7202/C 72-2/X
Autumn 1 – Spring 1 (September onwards)	Topic: Key Stage 5 (year 12) starts with skills building in each discipline, covering the key techniques and processes Skills builder Students will undertake a number of directed tasks to build their skills and understanding in the fine art processes, building on achievements in year 11 and will further underpin their future creative and independent projects and provides a platform for creative development. Tasks will include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · Analytical drawing - in different media and subject matter · Understanding of colour and painting · Printmaking – skills building in multiple techniques · Artist research – contextual and analytical writing · Mixed media and sketchbook development.
Spring 1 – Summer 2 (June onwards)	Topic: Key stage 5 (Year 12) Students start the developing ideas in preparation for starting the Unit 1 (Personal Investigation unit- 60% of overall grade) This is a thematic enquiry driven by students’ own thoughts, ideas & concepts. Students will expand their existing knowledge & understanding to develop a more self-directed unit of work. This project will meet all the AQA assessment objectives. Students will follow a project structure. Tasks include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Development of an investigative process sketchbook of ideas and potential concepts - Numerous links to artists, image analysis - Mind map/spider diagrams - Moodboards - Artist response - Own photography - Sustained tonal and experimental drawing - Visits to galleries and exhibitions - Experimentation with relevant materials and techniques - Students also will start expanding ideas in a larger sketchbook

Key Stage 5(13)
Course title: A-Level Fine Art
Exam board: AQA
Specification code:
Autumn 1 – Spring 1 (September – January)	Topic Unit 1 Personal investigation (60% of overall grade)
	Topic Unit 1 Personal investigation (60% of overall grade) In September, students will continue the development of the personal investigation. They will study at least 4 artists of their choice to research, analyse, and respond to. This initial research in the sketchbooks will be collated into a formal essay of between 1000 and 3000 words. Students will develop different skill sets and specialism linked to students’ previous skills and visual research. Students’ photography and experimental drawings will be used to inspire final design ideas. One or more of these will culminate into a final outcome for the unit: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Photography - Tonal/experimentation drawing - Printing, painting, collage, and mixed media - Artist research, image analysis - Student response to individual artists - Formal essay - Theme and experimentation to develop the project in-depth - Compositional ideas - Convincing, personal and meaningful final outcomes The personal investigation is a major component of unit 1 A-level.

Spring 1 – Summer 2 (February – May)	The exam preparation unit starts on the first lesson in January as instructed by AQA. Unit 2 exam – externally set (40% of overall grade) Students receive an exam paper in February with a set of themes and instructions to create a developed and personal project and final outcome based on their own creative journey. The final outcomes are dependent on the in-depth research and development culminating in a 15-hour invigilated exam. Students are supported to create a matrix of tasks and a timeline and work independently during the 10-week research period. They need to produce a sketchbook meeting the 3 assessment criteria, building on the project planning skills established in previous units. Final outcomes deliver the fourth assessment objective in 15-hour controlled exam period over 3 days.
---	--