QEHS WEEKLY UPDATE 15

The term draws to a close with sixth form dressing up, Christmas lunch, rewards afternoon and celebration assemblies. Students were encouraged to reflect on their term and we, as a school, can look back with pride on what has been achieved this year, so far. Our students have excelled in cross country, boxing, rowing, golf, rugby, football, music competitions, mock trial, chess, netball and a whole host of other activities. We have taken trips to London, Sicily and (even) Benwell in Newcastle.

This week was celebration evening where we welcomed back students from last year's Y11 and Y13 to receive prizes in their subjects. The guest speaker, Lucy Scott, Senior Producer Contemporary Music & Artist Development at the Glasshouse spoke beautifully about her passion for music and creativity. We also welcomed 'Fire and Dough' who supplied pizzas to families on a cold winter evening. The evening was a wonderful celebration of our school and talented students.

QE students took part in the Hexham Middle School Abbey concert – you can watch parts of the evening at the link below. As students finally depart for their 1.30pm early finish, I want to wish all of our students, families and staff a very wonderful Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Student success - County Rugby

Well done to all eight QEHS girls, Evie N, Isla M, Ariel L, Charlotte A (captain), Lucy C, Abby A, Alana P, Lucy P, who represented the Northumberland County Rugby with their win at weekend against Cumbria Blues. This is an outstanding achievement to have so much representation from the school. In addition, Tynedale Under 16 girls have just qualified for the last 16 of the National Cup and have just been awarded Northumberland RFU's team of the month. Well done to you all!

Football Rewards Afternoon

The PE department would like to share how impressed they were with the conduct of our year 9, 10 and 11 students during the rewards afternoon. There were just shy of 100 students participating in the rewards afternoon football tournament and the atmosphere was highly positive. Students responded very well to staff and demonstrated very good etiquette and sportsmanship. Well done to all students involved.

We would also like to send a huge thanks to six of our sixth form students who stayed late on their final day of term to help with the delivery of the event. They were Thomas W, Matty D, Matty T, Dan M, Tom L and Adam W. You were all brilliant! Thank you.

Y9 Rugby

Well done to our Year 9 rugby team who played NSB on Monday. Incredibly, they managed to continue their unbeaten run this season by winning 36-0. They were many strong performances throughout with Isaac M dominating once more and scoring 4 tries, Alex & Joseph controlling play from scrum half and some big excellent attacking play from Callum, Cameron and Freddie. However, player of the match goes to Robbie S for his ferocious tackling, epic line breaks and his performance was capped off by a well-deserved try.
